Soroptimist International is a worldwide organisation of women who come together to promote and advance women's rights and equality.

It is the world's largest women's service organisation, recognised and respected by the United Nations and linked to its Sustainable Development Goals.

Our Work

Soroptimist International has approx. 75000 members, 3000 clubs in over 120 countries around the world.. We campaign, fundraise and manage a range of projects aimed towards ending poverty and hunger and providing education, clean water business skills, maternal healthcare and preserving the environment.

There are nearly 300 clubs in the UK, many supporting Women's Aid refugees and better laws to protect women from domestic abuse.
